Elmsford, NY – August 3, 2016 - Paws Crossed Animal Rescue Inc. is pleased to announce the celebration of their one-year anniversary on August 4, 2016.

“This has been one amazing year,” said Jennifer Angelucci, President/CEO of Paws Crossed Animal Rescue. “When the doors closed at this location in 2015, a tremendous void was felt immediately in Westchester and beyond. Losing a Westchester-based animal rescue that has been in existence for the past 80-plus years was simply not an option – we could not let the animals down when they were counting on us for comfort and care. So, together, with our wonderful community, we just never gave up.”

Paws Crossed signed for the property on June 2, 2016. At that time, the property was greatly neglected and overgrown. In two quick months, the rescue has rapidly transformed with the generous support of contractors, painters, electricians, plumbers, and landscapers. Reestablishment of a true no-kill animal rescue is now within “paw’s reach”!

“Thanks to everyone's diligence and perseverance, we are on target for a 'soft opening' mid-August 2016, followed by the GRAND OPENING on September 17, 2016! In just 12 months, a new rescue was born and a once-abandoned property has come to life again. With our wonderful staff and amazing community support, the future of animal rescue is just so bright,” said Leslie Zee, Board Member of Paws Crossed Animal Rescue Inc.

Paws Crossed welcomes all to join them for the Grand Opening festivities on September 17, 2016 to thank the community in person for all of their support and encouragement – and for truly keeping this story in the public’s hearts and minds.
